WONDERFUL PROGRESS.

For a company which has but just completed twenty-five years of corporate existence, the Provident Life of New York puts forth a statement showing really wonderful progress. Only sixteen companies of the United States have over $100,000,000 of ordinary life business in force, and the Provident Savings is one of the youngest companies attaining that distinction. I. R. Doctor English's Suit Against Liliuokalani.

Asks That a Speedy Trial Be Ordered So That He May Return to His Home.

Dr. Charles H. English, who came to Hawaii as the personal physician of Ex-Queen Liliuokalani, has received information of a business character from his home in Ohio that will call him thither before the first of October. As the doctor's sole reason for being in Hawaii is in consonance with his contract with the queen, he is anxious to bring his case to trial. He filed the following affidavit and notice of motion in the Circuit Court yesterday:

"I, Charles H. English, now temporarily residing in Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, doctor of medicine, make oath and say:
"First—That I was engaged by the defendant in this action at Washington, in the District of Columbia, to accompany the said defendant to Honolulu, in the Hawaiian Islands, as set out in the complaint on file in this case; that I am a resident of and have business in the city of Cincinnati, in the state of Ohio, in the United States of America, and have been forced and compelled to stay in Honolulu in consequence of the action of said defendant, Lydia Dominis.

"That there is urgent necessity why I should leave for the United States of America and for my home in the city of Cincinnati during this month of September."

"And now comes the above named plaintiff in this action, Charles H. English, and by Davis & Gear, his attorneys, moves this honorable court that the said case of English vs. Dominis be placed on the calendar of the present term of this honorable court.

"This motion is based upon the record on file in this action and upon the affidavit attached hereto.
"Take notice that the above motion will be presented to his honor, the Hon. A. S. Humphreys, the judge presiding at the term of this court, which has been extended by order of his honor at the court room in the court house in the Judiciary building, on Thursday, the 6th day of September, A. D. 1900, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon."

In This Case Bail Was Refused At First.

Responsible Citizen Brands Report Published in an Evening Paper as False.

In reference to a story in the Star last evening, that bail was not refused in the case of a man arrested on Monday evening for being drunk, one of the friends of the man looked up said last night:

"The story that bail was not refused is not true. I and the others with me offered bail and asked what it was. We got no satisfaction except that we were told to see the sheriff. The clerk ordered the prisoner searched and put below. We did not say anything to him about releasing the man without bail. We did not say anything about not putting his name on the register. We wanted to bail him out and were refused the privilege point blank."

It is said that the man arrested on Monday night refused to leave the station when the sheriff came there. This is true, but he did not refuse to leave when his friends first came there with him when he was brought in. After he had been locked up for several hours the sheriff was found and came to the station. Consent was given to the man's release on bail and he was brought up from the cells, but when he got in the office he refused to be bailed out and said bad words, so he was locked up again.

Notwithstanding what is said by the police authorities that the bail system in Honolulu is a very liberal one with of regular rule for release, bail was positively refused on the occasion mentioned until the sheriff had been seen, although the men offering it were men high in the counsel of fraternal societies, holding responsible private and government positions and whose word is as good, if not better, than that of the sheriff or his clerk.

WILL CELEBRATE.

Native Sons of Golden West to Remember Admission Day.

At a meeting of the Native Sons of Golden West held last evening at the Hawaiian Hotel, $130 was raised for a celebration on next Monday night. About twenty gentlemen were present. A committee of three was appointed to make arrangements for whatever should be decided on. They were C. E. Heverin, C. H. Bellina and A. Newhouse.

There was considerable discussion in regard to the nature of the entertainment. Some preferred a quiet smoker, others a more elaborate banquet, and still others a dance in which the Native Daughters might participate. After a great deal of talk, the general consensus of opinion was in favor of the banquet.

A Committee of Finance was appointed to solicit subscriptions.
The society adjourned to meet again Thursday evening, at 7:30.

The marriage of Miss Grace Walker, sister of Mr. J. H. Walker, formerly of this city, and V. A. Vetter, both of Honolulu, was celebrated at the latter place on Wednesday of last week. Rev. W. A. A. officiated.

Who Constitutes a Guest at a Hotel?

Judge Wilcox Will Decide Question of Sunday Liquor Selling at Waikiki.

A test case is to be made of the practice of selling liquor at the Waikiki Inn on Sundays to those who register there and are served with liquor as guests. The place was spotted last Sunday and as a result subpoenas have been served on most of the people who visited the resort and took a "wee drop" to slake their thirst.

The beach is a popular place for recreation on Sundays, and many who toil in town all day during the week are in the habit of going to Waikiki in search of pleasure on Sundays. The scenery is inviting to the repose so conducive to comfort in this climate, and the water, of which there is an abundance, is good to look upon and better to swim in. An afternoon spent at the beach would no doubt be a pleasure to many who are weary of the inner man. The refreshment is there, however, and because some of the doctors and lawyers and business men of the town "craved a crumb and sipped a sup" they have been commanded to tell Judge Wilcox all about it in the police court this morning.

The manager of the Waikiki Inn was arrested last evening and charged with selling liquor on Sunday to others than guests of the inn. All of the people so served had registered, and it remains to be seen whether a person who places his name on the register of a hotel is a guest of the house or not.

FOR KEEPING OPEN SUNDAY.

Thirteen Arrests Were Made for Breaking the Sabbath Day Law.

The crusade against those who break the Sabbath by laboring where it is not necessary or in doing an act of mercy, has begun. Yesterday warrants were served on thirteen persons who kept their stores open on the Sabbath contrary to law. The cases will be heard by Judge Wilcox today. The complaints against the persons arrested are sworn to by David Kapa and one of them reads as follows:

"D. Kapa of Honolulu, being first duly sworn says: That Chuan Hook and Tai Hoo of Honolulu, Oahu, at said Honolulu, Oahu, on to wit the 2d day of September, A. D. 1900, said day being the Sabbath day, did perform certain labor, the same not being a work of necessity or mercy; to wit by keeping open a certain store on Hotel street, in Honolulu, Oahu, and selling goods therefrom to the public contrary to section 317 penal laws 1897."

The warrants of arrest were signed by Judge Wilcox and the return of the warrants were approved by the high sheriff.

The storekeepers arrested were: Mow Sing, Mrs. L. Achong, Kwei, Mrs. Morimoto, Y. Matsui, W. Tai Yow, Ahim, Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Yee Keng, Lee Lim and Tai Hoo.
